We've made it as easy as 1 ... 2 ... 3 ... (ok ... 4)!

Step 1

Each month we post a new "date"

Each contains a practical, and Biblically-based, teaching component and relational skill to strengthen your marriage

Step 2

Download the "Date Docket," which provides":

- An overview of the content in each date
- Our "knee to knee - nose to nose" questions to get you talking about what you've learned and how you want to put it into practice
- An estimate of how much time each segment will take to complete to prepare you for Step #3

Step 3

Develop your own schedule and plan

Some couples plow through all of the segments at one time, while others spread them out over the month and go out on a "date night" in week 4. The choice is yours. Have fun and be creative. Once you have a plan, move on to Step #4.

Step 4

Select the best time and place to watch your video dates

Some couples cuddle and watch the date night video together. Others view it during the work day and plan a time to discuss it in the evening at home. Again, there is no right or wrong way. Do what works best for you!

"Thanks for making us aware of this new resource! My wife and I took a "test drive" with the first date on Friday night. We really enjoyed it and it led to some great conversations about our marriage. What I love about this is it is something couples can do together at a time that is convenient to them and done in privacy. ... And because these online dates are free, they are accessible to everyone. I know several couples I am going to recommend this to right away!"
